

Hospital Services for Young People

Glasgow Royal Concert Hall
6th May 2009

Draft Programme

9.00 – 9.45

Registration

Session 1

Chair – Morgan Jamieson

9.45

Welcome

9.50

Opening Remarks

10.00

Essentially Different – The Nature of Adolescence

*Dr. Russell Viner, Consultant in Adolescent Medicine,
University College Hospital, London*

10.20

What Does Good Hospital Care Look Like- Key Criteria for Inpatient Services

Dr Janet McDonagh, Consultant Rheumatologist, Birmingham

10.40

Motivating or Manipulating – How to Make Young People Want to Want to Change

*Dr Deborah Christie, Consultant Clinical Psychologist
University College Hospital, London*

11.00

Discussion

11.15

Coffee

- 11.45 Specialist Care in an Adolescent Unit or Age Appropriate Care in a Specialist Unit
Contributors –
Dr. Alastair Innes, Consultant in Respiratory Medicine, Western General, Edinburgh
Mr Graham Haddock, Consultant Surgeon, Royal Hospital for Sick Children, Glasgow
Tari Robertson, Youth Panel, NHS Greater Glasgow & Clyde
- 12.45 Lunch
- 13.30 Parallel Sessions A, B & E
(See page 3 for further information)
- 14.15 Circulation
- 14.25 Parallel Sessions C, D & E
(See page 3 for further information)
- 15.10 Circulation

Session 3
Chair – Professor Chris Kelnar

- 15.20 Creating an Age Appropriate Environment
Richard Mazuch, Healthcare Architect
Nightingale Associates, London
- 15.50 Moving On – The Importance of Good Transition
Dr. Brian Kennon, Consultant in Diabetes
Southern General Hospital, Glasgow
- 16.10 Personal Reflections – the Future for Adolescent Hospital Care
Dr. Russell Viner, Consultant in Adolescent Medicine
University College Hospital, London
- 16.30 Close of Conference

A. Lessons From Experience
Chair – Dr Jim Beattie, Scottish Officer, Royal College of Paediatrics and Child Health

Adolescent Psychiatry

Dr Heather Gardiner, Consultant Adolescent Psychiatrist, Glasgow

The District General Hospital

Dr Calum Morrison, Consultant Paediatrician, Crosshouse Hospital

Teenage Cancer Unit

Sue Morgan MBE, TCT Nurse Consultant, Leeds

B. Sustaining Education
Chair – Caroline Mearns, Child Health Programme Coordinator, NHS Education Scotland

Statutory Requirements

Ann Burnett, Hospital and Outreach Teaching Service, Edinburgh

Delivering Education in Hospital

Diane Rainey Cooper, Hospital and Outreach Teaching Service, Edinburgh

New Opportunities – the Role of Technology

Marie Dougan, Programme Director, Learning and Teaching Scotland

C. Respecting Autonomy
Chair – Janice MacKenzie, Chief Nurse, Children's Services, Edinburgh

Nursing Models and Ward Routines

TBC

Consent and Confidentially

Katy Macfarlane, Child and Family Solicitor, Edinburgh

D. Support and Protection
Chair – Una Macfadyen, Consultant Paediatrician, Stirling Royal Infirmary

Chaplaincy for Young People

Rev. Alistair Bull, Chaplain, Royal Hospital for Sick Children, Glasgow

The Role of the Youth Worker

Chris Cameron, Nurse Specialist for Young People,

Royal Hospital for Sick Children, Glasgow

Recognising Abuse

Dr Elizabeth Myerscough, Consultant Paediatrician, Grampian

E. During the each of two sets of Parallel Sessions representatives from the Royal College of Paediatrics and Child Health will be offering a workshop on the recently developed Adolescent Health eLearning Programme. Attendance at these workshops will be strictly limited and is available as an alternative to attendance at the first or second set of Parallel Sessions.