

Facing the Future - National Convention

28 June 2004

Edinburgh International Conference Centre
The Exchange, Edinburgh

DATE FOR YOUR DIARY

BACKGROUND

Facing the Future was officially launched in November 2001. Its main purpose was to take a lead on improving recruitment and retention among the nursing and midwifery workforce in NHSScotland.

DATE

This flyer provides brief details of the second Facing the Future Convention planned for 28th June 2004. The purpose of this all day event being to:

- Celebrate the successes to date
- Share in more detail work in progress
- Set priorities for the future

This event will be hosted by the Minister for Health and Community Care, Malcolm Chisholm MSP.

In addition a range of guest speakers will be invited to address the convention on the day. Formal invitations and programme to follow.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND

Given the nature of this event, we are looking for representation across all levels of staff, covering Chief Executive and Director as well as front line health care staff (including nursing and midwifery students).

Please arrange for appropriate distribution within your area of responsibility.

To register for the convention please contact the Scottish Health Service Centre: maureen.hart@shsc.csa.scot.nhs.uk