

Dear Colleague

POLICY ON MANAGEMENT OF SICKNESS ABSENCE (PROMOTING ATTENDANCE)

1. As part of the three year Agenda for Change pay deal agreed in 2018, NHS Scotland Employers and Staff Side also agreed to review and refresh the guidance around Policy on Management of Sickness Absence (Promoting Attendance) in NHS Scotland.
2. This work has been taken forward in partnership by a Working Group created under the aegis of the Scottish Terms and Conditions Committee (STAC).
3. The Group undertook a comprehensive review of the existing sickness absence section of the Agenda for Change (AfC) Handbook and considered policies and practices in place across NHS Scotland. The key outcomes are set out in Annex A to this circular. A form to be used across NHS Scotland by staff wishing to appeal against the outcome of a first formal stage discussion in relation to sickness absence is attached at Annex B.
4. The provisions set out in this circular should be adopted by the service from 1 April 2019. The wider recommendations of the Working Group will be absorbed within the work which the Scottish Workforce and Staff Governance Committee (SWAG) is currently doing to review all Partnership Information Network (PIN) policies on a "Once for Scotland" basis.
5. In order to make it easier for Boards to adopt these provisions, a Word version of Annex B will be made available along with this circular on the "Circulars and Guidance" section of the STAC website:

STATEMENT ON PROMOTING ATTENDANCE IN NHS SCOTLAND

1. The STAC Promoting Attendance Working Group determined that there is no need to reform the current AfC Handbook, but have instead concluded that a robust and effective process relating to health, wellbeing and managing sickness absence is required.

2. The Group have developed guidance for staff and for managers, as well as an absence management checklist, a template for return to work discussions and a form for paper-based appeals at stage one. In addition, they have made recommendations covering areas such as training and local and national arrangements for measuring compliance. The new documentation and recommendations will inform the work to develop the Promoting Attendance Policy on a Once for Scotland basis.

3. In advance of this, NHS Scotland should take note of the following key recommendations for application from 1 April:

- NHS Scotland should work towards reducing sickness absence by 0.5% per annum over 3 years, beginning on 1 April 2019 and with the aim of achieving an overall NHS Scotland average of less than 4%.
- Common NHS Scotland trigger points should be adopted to prompt and inform the first formal discussions in relation to sickness absence. The Working Group have agreed that these should be either 4 separate episodes of absence, or short term absences totalling 8 or more working days within a rolling 12 month period.
- The right to appeal on the basis of process not being followed exists at all formal stages. However, an appeal at the first formal stage will be paper-based and should not involve attendance at a hearing. The service should adopt the form devised by the Working Group for this (available at Annex B of this circular).
